ORANGE CONVENTION.

Taliaferro and Barbour Both Nominated.

Ten delegates of eleven elected met at Orange, Tuesday, to nominate a candidate for the Constitutional Convention.

Five of the delegates were for Taliaferro. Four for Barbour and one for Scott.

The Scott and Barbour delegates favored excluding the delegates from Orange and Highlands because of alleged irregularities at those precincts.

The Taliaferro men and the Barbour men then held separate conventions, and both were nominated.

It is said that the case will be carried to the State Committee for settlement.

Spotsylvania Circuit Court.

The time for holding the Circuit Court of Spotsylvania is May 6th. That is also the date of the County Court.

For this reason the officers of the courts have requested Judge J. E. Mason to postpone the Circuit Court to Wednesday, May 8th, and he has so ordered it.

Westmoreland Marriage.

Miss Lesbia Spillman, of Westmoreland, and Mr. Frederick Alexander, of Newport News, were married Tuesday at St. Peter's church, Oak Grove, by Rev. W. C. Latane.
